UTAH BANKRUPTCY LAWYERS FORUM

February 7, 2008

Re: 2008 Membership/March 13, 2008 Forum

Dear Colleague:

The Board of Trustees invites you to apply for and participate in the 2008 sessions of the Utah Bankruptcy Lawyers Forum. All of the Forum's sessions over the last many years have been accepted by the Utah State Board of Continuing Education as continuing legal education hours ("CLE"). As a registered member of the Forum, the Forum will include your name in the applications we submit (after each session) requesting CLE certification. In addition, your dues will help support the Forum's efforts in obtaining out-of-town speakers and providing quality refreshments at each session.

During 2007, the Forum hosted four sessions: "Practical Practice Tips From the Experts and Meet the Judges' Clerks," "What Can I Keep: Exploring Exemption Limitations," "As the Pendulum Swings: Successes and Failures of BAPCPA," and "Non-Bankruptcy Alternatives and 10th Circuit Case Law Update." As a result of these events, we received approval for a total of 8 hours of CLE credit from the Utah State Bar for 2007. In addition, the UBLF website is back up and running. Don't forget to check it out: www.ublf.org

This year, our first session of 2008 will take place on Thursday, March 13, 2008 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the State Bar Spring Convention in St. George, Utah. The Bar Section of the State Bar and the Forum will reimburse up to $100.00 of one night's hotel stay for out-of-town members of the Bankruptcy Section or the Forum. The presenters include John T. Morgan speaking on compliance issues, criminal/fraud referrals and United States Trustee audits; Kevin Anderson on Chapter 13's, David West on Chapter 7's, and Andy Diaz on consumer Chapter 11's. We hope you will join us.

Three additional forum sessions are in the planning stages for the remainder of the year. As a member of the Forum, it is anticipated that you will receive 8 hours of CLE this year. The membership fee for 2008 is $75.00, which equates to less than $10.00 per hour of CLE credit.

An application form is enclosed. Please complete the application and mail it to David L. Miller, Treasurer, at the address listed on the form, along with your membership fee.

Sincerely,

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE
